

Jessica Allosery

"Songstress to honor
her late nephew with a fundraiser house
concert tour."

WHO

JESSICA ALLOSSERY

Independent Canadian Singer-Songwriter.

THE GOAL

The Henry Tour

A House-Concert Fundraiser Tour from Sept to Nov 2019. Jessica's goal is to perform 22 shows and raise 10K for the Ronald McDonald House.

Jessica is embarking on her third House Concert Tour, and she is looking for Ellen's support to help promote it!

From Sept 2019, Jessica Allossery will begin a 2 month journey across countless states and provinces, to perform 30+ shows. She is dedicating a portion of proceeds (hopefully 10K) to the Ronald McDonald House in Toronto, to honor her sweet 9 year old nephew Henry, who passed away suddenly from a brain tumor in February. RMH helped her family greatly during this tragedy and now she would like to give back the best way she can: through healing house concerts!

ARTIST BIO

From house concert tours to custom songs, Jessica Allossery is one of the hardest working independent musicians out there. Since teaching herself guitar in 2008, she's made a name for herself in the indie music scene, completely on her own. With millions of spotify plays, youtube views, and thousands of followers to boot, she's earned every single fan with hard work and determination to continue following her dreams and living an artist lifestyle.

Her intimate solo performances are only small pieces of the puzzle that draw in new audiences. Jessica also writes custom songs, that give her fans a chance to tell their own life stories, in the form of music.

The free-spirited indie songstress resides in Ontario Canada, but spends most of the year on tour, traveling around in her camper named Pearl. Jessica and her parents transformed the 1969 vintage camper into a solo tour bus in 2017, and it's quickly become a large part of her story, as she continues sharing her music and adventures with the world.

Thank you for considering this story for the ellen show!
